

Tricky Words

'Tricky words' are words which cannot be sounded out when read, so the children need to learn them. Children will become familiar with these words as they read, and will start to recognise them in books.

We are learning 2 tricky words a week at school.

Please can you help your child practise reading the tricky words at home.

As the children's confidence in writing grows, they could even practise writing tricky words and using them in sentences!
